- Sec. 9-36. Severability Clause.

The provisions of this Chapter shall be known as the Animal Ordinance of the Town of Hurt.

Article I - General

Sec. 9-1. Permitting livestock on street right of way.

No person shall pasture or graze, or cause to be pastured or grazed, or otherwise permit to be on any right of way of any street in the Town, except as herein otherwise provided, any livestock; provided, however, that this section shall not apply when such livestock are being driven along such road or right of way while under the control of a responsible drover or drovers. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars for such offense.

Sec. 9-2. Allowing poultry to roam at large.

It shall be unlawful for the owners of chickens or other poultry to allow such chickens or other poultry to roam at large.

Sec. 9-3. Noisy animals and fowl.

No person shall have or keep any animal or fowl which, by making or causing frequent or long continued and unreasonable noise, shall disturb the comfort and repose of any person in the vicinity. Upon complaint being made to the Police Department that the provisions of this section are being violated, such officer may, after investigation, give notice of such complaint to the owner or person in charge of such animal or fowl and order the discontinuance of the disturbance. It shall be unlawful to fail to comply with such order.

Sec. 9-4. Leaving disabled or dead animal in road, or allowing dead animal to remain unburied.

If any person cast any dead animal into a road or knowingly permit any dead animal to remain unburied upon his property when offensive to the public or, having in custody any maimed, diseased, dissolved or infirm animal, leave it to lie or be in a street, road or public place, he shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Sec. 9-5. Keeping pigs, hogs and other domestic animals within Town.

It shall be unlawful for any person to have and keep pigs or hogs at any place within the corporate limits of the Town of Hurt within five hundred (500) feet of any residence other than the owner or closer than two hundred (200) feet to any street, road or alley.

No pen or enclosure for pigs or hogs shall contain less than fifty (50) square yards of space for each animal therein confined.

At any time which any enclosure in which pigs or hogs are kept may become filthy or offensive the same shall be deemed a nuisance, and the owner shall be required to forthwith abate such nuisance.

It shall be unlawful for any owner or custodian of any domestic farm animal other than hogs to keep such animal stabled or penned within three hundred feet of any residence other than the owner. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such animals may be permitted to graze no closer than 100 feet from the residence of any other person. The Town Manager may place such conditions upon said grazing as he or she deems necessary to prevent the creation of a nuisance and/or disturbance to the reasonable peace and comfort of neighboring residents.

Replacement Page. (Sec. 9-5 amended 4/3/01).

Violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $50.00 for each offense. Each day shall constitute a separate offense.

Article II - Dogs

Sec. 9-6. Authority for Dog Warden.

The duly appointed animal warden for Pittsylvania County and such deputies as may be appointed to assist said animal warden is hereby authorized to enforce this ordinance within the Town of Hurt.

Sec. 9-7. Definitions generally.

For the purpose of this ordinance, and unless otherwise required by the context:

A. Animal Warden. Any animal warden or deputy animal warden appointed pursuant to Section 2-5, Chapter 2 of the Code of Pittsylvania County and authorized to act within the Town of Hurt pursuant to Sec. 9-6 above.

Supplement Page. (Sec. 9-5 amended 4/3/01)

(Next page is 903)

B. Enclosure. A structure used to house or restrict animals from running at large.

C. Livestock. Cattle, horses, sheep, goats, swine and enclosed domesticated rabbits or hares.

D. County. Pittsylvania County unless otherwise designated.

E. County Administrator. The duly appointed County Administrator of Pittsylvania County, his deputy, or other person authorized to perform the duties imposed by this ordinance.

F. Owner. Any person having a right of property in any dog, subject to the provisions of this article, and any person who keeps or harbors such dog, or has the dog in his care, or who acts as its custodian, and any person who permits a dog to remain on or about any premises occupied by him.

G. Poultry. All domestic fowl, and game birds raised in captivity.

H. Pound. A facility operated by the County for the prevention of cruelty to animals or for the purpose of impounding or harboring seized, stray, homeless, abandoned or unwanted animals.

I. Boarding Kennel. A place or establishment other than a pound or shelter where animals not owned by the proprietor are fed, sheltered and watered for a fee, but shall not include training or show kennels.

J. Person. Any individual, partnership, firm, joint-stock company, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity.

K. Other Officer. All other persons employed or elected by the people of Virginia, or by any municipality, county or incorporated town thereof, whose duty is to preserve the peace, to make arrests or to enforce the law.

L. Treasurer. The County Treasurer and his assistants or other officer designated by law to collect taxes in the County.

M. To Run at Large. A dog shall be deemed "to run at large" while roaming, running or self-hunting off the property of its owner or custodian and not under its owner's or custodian's immediate control, including chasing motor vehicles on a public highway.

N. Vaccinate, Vaccinated or Vaccination. The immunization of a dog against rabies, whether by inoculation, vaccination or any other method of treatment approved by the County health officer.

O. Veterinarian. Any licensed veterinarian authorized to practice veterinary medicine in the state.

P. Guide Dog, Lead Dog or Hearing Dog. Any dog that is trained and serves as a guide dog for a blind person or that is trained and serves as a lead dog or guide dog for a deaf person or a hearing impaired person. A hearing dog means a dog trained to alert its owner by touch to sounds of danger and sounds to which the owner should respond.

Sec. 9-8. Amount of license.

It shall be unlawful for any person to own a dog six months old or over in this town unless such dog is licensed, as required by the provisions of this ordinance. Dog licenses shall run by the calendar, namely, from January 1 to December 31, inclusive, and the license tax shall be payable at the Office of the Treasurer. The amount of said tax shall be as set forth in Appendix A to this Chapter.

Sec. 9-9. When license tax payable.

The license tax on dogs shall be due and payable as follows:

A. On or before January 1 and not later than January 31 of each year, the owner of any dog six months old or older shall pay a license tax as prescribed in the preceding section.

B. If a dog shall become six months of age or come into the possession of any person in this Town between January 1 and November 31 of any year, the license tax for the current calendar year shall be paid forthwith by the owner.

C. If a dog shall become six months of age or if a dog over six months of age unlicensed by this Town shall come into the possession of any person in this Town between November 1 and December 31 of any year, the license tax for the succeeding calendar year shall be paid forthwith by the owner and such license shall protect the dog from the date of purchase.

Sec. 9-10. Payment of license tax subsequent to summons.

Payment of the license tax subsequent to a summons to appear before the Judge of the Pittsylvania County General District Court or other court for failure to do so within the time required shall not operate to relieve such owner from the penalties provided.

Sec. 9-11. The effect of a dog not wearing collar as evidence.

Any dog not wearing a collar bearing a license tag of the proper calendar year shall prima facie be deemed to be unlicensed, and in any proceedings under this ordinance the burden of proof of the fact that the dog has been licensed or is otherwise not required to bear a tag at the time, shall be on the owner of the dog.

Sec. 9-12. How to obtain license.

Any resident of this Town may obtain a dog license by making oral or written application to the Treasurer, accompanied by the amount of the license tax and certificate of vaccination. The Treasurer shall have authority to license only dogs of resident owners or custodians who reside within the boundary limits of this town and may require information to this effect of any applicant. Upon receipt of proper application and certificate of vaccination, the Treasurer shall issue a license receipt for the amount on which he shall record the name and address of the owner or custodian, the date of payment, the year for which issued, the serial number of the tag, whether male, unsexed female, female or kennel, and deliver the metal license tags or plates herein provided for. The information thus received shall be retained by the treasurer, open to public inspection, during the period for which such license is valid.

Sec. 9-13. What dog licenses shall consist of.

A dog license shall consist of a license receipt and a metal tag. The tag shall be stamped or otherwise permanently marked to show the name Pittsylvania County, the sex of dog, the calendar year for which issued and bear a serial number.

Sec. 9-14. Duplicate license tag.

If the dog license shall become lost, destroyed, or stolen, the owner or custodian shall at once apply to the Treasurer who issued the same for a duplicate license tag, presenting the original license receipt. Upon affidavit of the owner or custodian before the Treasurer that the original license tag has been lost, destroyed, or stolen, he shall issue a duplicate license tag which the owner or custodian shall immediately affix to the collar of the dog. The Treasurer shall endorse the number of the duplicate and the date issued on the face of the original license receipt. The fee for a duplicate tag shall be one dollar ($1.00).

Sec. 9-15. Displaying receipts: Dogs to wear tags.

Dog license receipts shall be carefully preserved by the licensees and exhibited promptly on request for inspection by the animal warden or other officer. Dog license tags shall be securely fastened to a substantial collar by the owner or custodian and worn by such dog. It shall be unlawful for the owner to permit any licensed dog six months old or over to run or roam at large at any time without a license tag. The owner of the dog may remove the collar and license tag required by this section (i) when the dog is engaged in lawful hunting, (ii) when the dog is competing in a dog show, (iii) when the dog has a skin condition which would be exacerbated by the wearing of a collar, (iv) when the dog is confined, or when the dog is under immediate control of its owner.

Sec. 9-16. Dogs deemed personal property; Rights relating thereto.

All dogs shall be deemed personal property and may be the subject of larceny and malicious or unlawful trespass. Owners thereof may maintain any action for the killing of any such dogs, or injury thereto, or unlawful detention or use thereof as in the case of other personal property. The owner of any dog which is injured or killed contrary to the provisions of this ordinance by any person shall be entitled to recover the value thereof or the damage done thereto in an appropriate action at law from such person.

An animal warden or other officer finding a stolen dog, or a dog held or detained contrary to law, shall have authority to seize and hold such dog pending action before the General District Court or other court. If no such action is instituted within seven days the animal warden or other official shall deliver the dog to its owner.

The presence of a dog on the premises of a person other than its legal owner shall raise no presumption of theft against the owner of such premises, and the animal warden may take such dog in charge and notify its legal owner to remove him. The legal owner of the dog shall pay a reasonable charge as specified by the Pittsylvania County Board of Supervisors for the keep of such dog while in the possession of the animal warden.

Sec. 9-17. Dogs killing, injuring or chasing livestock or poultry.

It shall be the duty of any animal warden who may find a dog in the act of killing or injuring livestock or poultry to kill such dog forthwith whether such dog bears a tag or not. Any person finding a dog committing any of the depredations mentioned in this section, shall have the right to kill such dog on sight as shall any owner of livestock or his agent finding a dog chasing livestock on land utilized by the livestock when the circumstances show that such chasing is harmful to the livestock. Any court shall have the power to order the animal warden or other officer to kill any dog known to be a confirmed livestock or poultry killer, and any dog killing poultry for the third time shall be considered a confirmed poultry killer.

Any animal warden who has reason to believe that any dog is killing livestock or poultry shall be empowered to seize such dog solely for the purpose of examining such dog in order to determine whether it committed any of the depredations mentioned herewith. Any animal warden or other person who has reason to believe that any dog is killing livestock, or committing any of the depredations mentioned in this section, shall apply to a Magistrate of the county wherein such dog may be, who shall issue a warrant requiring the owner or custodian, if known, to appear before a general district court at the time and place named therein, at which time evidence shall be heard. If it shall appear that such dog is a livestock killer, or has committed any of the depredations mentioned in this section, the district court shall order that the dog be killed immediately, by the animal warden, or other officer designated by the court.

Sec. 9-18. Dog Killing Other Domestic Animals Other Than Livestock or Poultry.

Any animal warden who has reason to believe that any dog is killing other dogs or domestic animals other than livestock or poultry shall apply to a magistrate of the county for the issuance of a warrant requiring the owner or custodian, if known, to appear before the general district court at a specified time. The animal warden or owner shall confine the dog until such time as evidence shall be heard and a verdict rendered. If it appears from the evidence that the dog has habitually killed other dogs or domestic animals, the court may order the dog killed.

Sec. 9-19. Killing unlicensed dogs.

It shall be the duty of the animal warden to kill any dog of unknown ownership found running at large on which license has not been paid; provided, that the animal warden may deliver such dog to any person in this Town who will pay the required license fee on such dog, with the understanding that should the legal owner thereafter claim the dog and prove his ownership, he may recover such dog by paying to the person to whom it was delivered by the animal warden, the amount of the license fee paid by him and a reasonable charge for the keep of the dog while in his possession. Any person, animal warden, or other officer killing a dog under this chapter shall cremate or bury the same.

Sec. 9-20. Disposal of dead dogs.

The owner of any dog which has died from disease or other cause shall forthwith cremate or bury the same. If, after notice, any owner fails to do so, the animal warden or other officer shall bury or cremate the dog, and he may recover on behalf of the county from the owner his cost for this service.

Sec. 9-21. Unlawful acts; Penalties.

A. The following shall be unlawful acts and constitute Class 4 misdemeanors:

1. False statements on license application. For any person to make a false statement in order to secure a dog license to which he is not entitled.
2. Failure to pay license tax. For any dog owner to fail to pay the license tax required by this chapter before February 1 for the year in which it is due.
3. Running at large. For any dog owner to allow a dog to run at large in violation of Section 9-15.
4. Dead Dogs. For any owner to fail to dispose of the body of his dog in violation of Section 9-20.
5. Diseased Dogs. For the owner of any dog with a contagious or infectious disease to permit such dog to stray from his premises if such disease is known to the owner.
6. Removing Collar and Tag. For any person, except the owner or custodian, to remove a legally acquired license tag from a dog.
7. Concealing a Dog. For any person to conceal or harbor any dog on which the license tax has not been paid, or to conceal a mad dog to keep the same from being killed.

8. Other violations. To permit a female dog to run at large while in heat; or permit a dog to chase motor vehicles on a public highway.

B. The following act shall be punished as a Class 1 misdemeanor: False Claim. For any person to present a false claim or to receive any money on a false claim under the provisions of the Code of Virginia.

Sec. 9-22. Prohibition against making a false representation of ownership of an animal to an animal shelter or pound; penalty.¹

A. It shall be unlawful for any person to deliver or release any animal not owned by that person to a pound, animal shelter or humane society, as these terms are defined in Sec. 3.1-796.66 of the Code of Virginia, or to any other similar facility for animals, or any agent thereof, and to falsely represent to such facility or agent that such person is the owner of the animal.

B. A violation of subsection A shall be punished as a Class 1 misdemeanor.

C. No pound, animal shelter, humane society or other similar facility for animals, or the directors or employees of any such business or facility, shall, in the absence of gross negligence, be civilly liable for accepting and disposing of any animal in good faith from a person who falsely claims to be the owner of the animal.

Sec. 9-23. Vicious Dogs.

It shall be unlawful to permit any vicious dog, or a dog which exhibits a dangerous propensity to harm people or which shows a disposition to attack human beings, to run at large within the county, and any person owning, having control or harboring any such dog is hereby required to keep the same confined within his premises.

Sec. 9-24. Compensation for Livestock and Poultry Killed by Dogs.

Any person who has any livestock or poultry killed or injured by any dog not his own shall be entitled to receive as compensation the fair market value of such livestock or poultry not to exceed Four Hundred ($400.00) Dollars per animal or fowl, provided that (i) claimant has furnished evidence within Sixty (60) days of discovery of the quality and value of the dead or injured livestock and the reasons the claimant believes that death or injury was caused by a dog; (ii) the animal warden or other officer shall have conducted an investigation and that his investigation supports the claim.

1. Va. Code Sec. 18.2-144.2

Under this section, the County Administrator is authorized to receive claims for compensation for livestock and poultry killed by dogs, together with reports made by the animal warden investigating the killing of livestock and poultry by dogs. The County Administrator shall process the claim and determine the fair market value of the livestock or poultry killed, and, if the claim is supported by the warden's investigation, shall approve the claim and submit the same to the Treasurer of Pittsylvania County for payment to the person entitled.

Article III - Cruelty to Animals

Sec. 9-25. Cruelty to animals a misdemeanor.

Any person who (1) overrides, overdrives, overloads, tortures, ill-treats, abandons, willfully inflicts inhumane injury or pain not connected with bona fide scientific or medical experimentation to, or cruelly or unnecessarily beats, maims, mutilates, or kills any animal, whether belonging to himself or another, or deprives any animal of necessary sustenance, food, drink or shelter, or causes any of the above things, or being the owner of such animal permits such acts to be done by another, or (2) willfully sets on foot, instigates, engages in, or in any way furthers any act of cruelty to any animal; or (3) shall carry or cause to be carried in or upon any vehicle or vessel or otherwise any animal in a cruel, brutal, or inhumane manner, so as to produce torture or unnecessary suffering, shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor; and any person who shall abandon any dog, cat or other domesticated animal in any public place including the right-of-way of any public highway, road or street or on the property of another shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor; but nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the dehorning of cattle.

Sec. 9-26. Soring horses.

For the purposes of this section, a horse shall be considered to be sored if, for the purpose of affecting its gait, a blistering agent has been applied internally or externally to any of the legs, ankles, feet or other parts of the horse, or if burns, cuts, or lacerations have been inflicted on the horse, or if a chemical agent, or tacks, nails, or wedges have been used on the horse, or if any other method or device has been used on the horse, including, but not limited to chains or boots, which may reasonably be expected currently (1) to result in physical pain to the horse when walking, trotting, or otherwise moving, or (2) to cause extreme fear or distress to the horse.

It shall be unlawful for any person to deliver or receive into this Town for the purpose of showing or exhibiting, any horse which such person has reason to believe is suffering from the effects of being sored, or who shows or exhibits or enters for the purpose of showing or entering in any horse show or exhibition, any horse which such person has reason to believe is sore, or to show or to exhibit or to enter or conduct any horse show or exhibition in which there is shown or exhibited a horse which such person has reason to believe is sore.

Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor.

Sec. 9-27. Fighting cocks, dogs, etc.

If any person engage in the fighting of cocks, dogs or other animals, for money, prize or anything of value, or upon the result of which any money or other thing of value is bet or wagered, or to which an admission fee is charged, directly or indirectly, he shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor.

Sec. 9-28. Shooting pigeons, etc., for amusement, and renting premises for such purposes.

Whoever keeps or uses a live pigeon or other bird or fowl for the purpose of a target, or to be shot at either for amusement or as a test of skill in marksmanship, or shoots at a bird kept or used as aforesaid, or is a party to such shooting, or lets any building, room, field, or premises or knowingly permits the use thereof for the purpose of such shooting, shall be guilty of a Class 4 misdemeanor. Nothing herein contained shall apply to the shooting of wild game.

Sec. 9-29. Meaning of "animal".

The word "animal", as used in this article, shall be construed to include birds and fowl.

Sec. 9-30. Authority of law enforcement officers.

All law enforcement officers in the Town shall enforce the provisions of this chapter to the same extent other laws in the Town are enforced. The Pittsylvania County Animal Warden shall have concurrent authority for the enforcement of this Chapter within the Town.

Sec. 9-31. Power of search for violations of ordinances against cruelty to animals.

When a sworn complaint is made to any proper authority by any officer that the complainant believes and has reasonable cause to believe that the laws in relation to cruelty to animals have been, are being, or are about to be violated in any particular building or place, such authority, if satisfied that there is reasonable cause for such belief, shall issue a warrant authorizing any police officer, to search such building or place; but no such search shall be made after sunset unless specially authorized by such authority upon satisfactory cause shown.

Sec. 9-32. When animals to be destroyed; procedure.

Any such officer or agent may lawfully destroy, or cause to be destroyed, any animal other than a dog or other companion animal subject to the provisions of Section 3.1-796.114 of the Code of Virginia, in his charge or found abandoned or not properly cared for, when, in the judgment of such officer or agent and two reputable citizens called to view the same in his presence, and who shall give their written certificate thereto, such animal appears to be injured, disabled or diseased, past recovery, or the injury, disease or disability, is such that a reasonable owner would cause the animal to be destroyed.

Any such officer or agent shall make every reasonable effort immediately to notify the owner of such animal that such officer or agent intends the animal to be destroyed, and such owner shall have a right to select one of the two reputable citizens called to view the animal and give written certificate thereto; but in no event shall the determination as to disposition of the animal be delayed beyond forty-eight hours after such officer or agent first decides the animal should be destroyed. In the event that the two citizens called to give such certificate are unable to agree, they shall select a third reputable citizen and his decision shall be final.

Sec. 9-33. When agent or officer may take charge of animals; notice and hearing to determine whether owner is fit person to care for animal; disposition of animal; disposition of proceeds upon sale.

Any such officer or agent, or the Pittsylvania County Animal Warden may lawfully take charge of any animal other than a dog or other companion animal subject to the provisions of Section 3.1-796.115 of the Code of Virginia, found abandoned, neglected, or cruelly treated or unfit for use, and shall forthwith petition any judge of the Pittsylvania County General District Court for a hearing which shall be in the nature of a criminal proceeding, to be set not more than ten days from the date of the seizure of such animal to determine whether the owner, if known, is able to adequately provide for such animal and is a fit person to own such animal; the officer or agent, or animal warden, shall cause to be served upon the owner, if known and residing within the jurisdiction of this Town, wherein such animal is found, written notice at least five days prior to said hearing of the time and place of such hearing; if the owner is known but residing out of the jurisdiction of this town, written notice by any method or service of process as is provided by the Code of Virginia, shall be given; if the owner is not known, the officer or agent shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the jurisdiction of this Town wherein such animal is found notice of said hearing at least one time prior to said hearing and shall further cause notice of said hearing to be posted at least five days prior to said hearing at the place provided for public notices at the town hall or courthouse wherein such hearing shall be had; the officer or agent, or animal warden, may provide for such animal until the owner is adjudged by the court able to adequately provide for such animal and a fit person to own such animal, in which case the animal shall be forthwith returned to such owner, but if the owner is adjudged by the court unable to adequately provide for such animal or not a fit person to own such animal then the court shall order that such animal be sold by the officer or agent, or animal warden, at public auction, placed for adoption in a suitable home or humanely destroyed as deemed proper by the court, but in no case shall the person adjudged unable to adequately provide for such animal or adjudged an unfit person to own such animal be allowed to purchase such animal at said sale; the court in determining whether the owner is able to adequately provide for such animal or is a fit person to own such animal may take into consideration among other things the owner's past record of convictions under this Article or one similar thereto prohibiting cruelty to animals and the owner's mental and physical condition; and in case of sale the proceeds shall first be applied to the costs of the sale then next to the expenses for the care and provision of such animal and the remaining proceeds, if any, shall be paid over to the owner of such animal, and if the owner of such animal cannot be found the proceeds remaining shall be paid into the Literary Fund of the State Treasury. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the destruction of a critically injured or ill animal for humane purposes.

Sec. 9-34. Maiming, killing or poisoning animals, fowl, etc.

Except as otherwise provided for by law, if any person maliciously shoot, stab, wound or otherwise cause bodily injury to, or administer poison to or expose poison with intent that it be taken by any fowl or by any companion animal of another, with intent to maim, disfigure, disable or kill the same with intent to defraud any insurer thereof or other intent, he shall be guilty of a Class I misdemeanor.

Sec. 9-35. Bird Sanctuary.

A. Sanctuary established. The entire area within the corporate limits of the Town of Hurt is hereby established as a bird sanctuary.

B. Discharge of weapons prohibited, penalty. It shall be unlawful for any person to shoot or otherwise discharge any rifle, pistol, shotgun, bow, crossbow, sling, slingshot, airgun, or other weapon at, toward or upon any bird, or to otherwise injure or destroy any such bird or any nest or egg thereof within the sanctuary created by Paragraph A hereof. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

C. Posting sanctuary. The Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries may post such sanctuary, provided that signs therefore can be obtained with cost to the State.

D. Exceptions. Provided, however, that if it becomes necessary in the opinion of the County Game Warden to destroy certain birds which are a nuisance, then said Game Warden shall have such authority, and provided further, that the Mayor may issue a permit to any discreet person for the killing of obnoxious birds.

Sec. 9-36. Severability Clause.

It is hereby declared to be the intention of the Council of the Town of Hurt that the sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, and phrases of this Chapter 9 are severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph or section of this Chapter 9 shall be declared unconstitutional or invalid by the valid judgement or decree of a Court of competent jurisdiction, such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect any of the remaining phrases, clauses, sentences, paragraphs, and sections of this Ordinance.

APPENDIX A

The license tax on dogs shall be two dollars ($2.00) per dog, regardless of sex or kennel.
